

Insurable Interest: Domestic & Same Sex Partners

CARRIER	GUIDELINES
Accordia Life <small>As of 7/2015</small>	The couple must reside in the same residence and share expenses.
AIG <small>As of 7/2015</small>	The gender of the couple is not considered if they have an insurable interest and can justify coverage financially. Would have to establish some type of relationship and significant loss if death occurs.
Fidelity Life <small>As of 7/2015</small>	There are specific state guidelines since some states accept same-sex marriage and some do not. Overall, Fidelity considers the economic loss to the beneficiary if the Insured were to pass away. This goes for both domestic partners and same sex partners.
Genworth Financial Companies <small>As of 7/2015</small>	Our beneficiary designations guidelines allow domestic partners with documentation supporting insurable interest. We don't distinguish between same sex or opposite sex relationships in looking at insurable interest.
Legal & General America <small>As of 7/2015</small>	If the partners live together and share expenses, mortgages, etc. LGA will consider as an insurable interest.

This information is for general comparative purposes only. If you have a specific case or question for a specific carrier, you are encouraged to contact the carrier or TMA's Support Desk for confirmation.

This information is believed to be accurate as of the date listed. Carriers can make changes without notifying TMA or other distribution.

Insurable Interest: Domestic & Same Sex Partners

CARRIER	GUIDELINES
Lincoln National As of 7/2015	Specify if the partnership is business or personal and clarify if the parties have shared financial interests or children. No additional information is required to establish insurable interest.
MetLife As of 7/2015	We will allow an individual to be named as spouse or domestic partner for the purpose of a beneficiary designation provided there is an insurable interest comparable to that of the a legally married couple. If the residence state does not recognize same sex marriage we would name them as domestic partner, otherwise they would be named as spouse.
Minnesota Life As of 7/2015	Will consider these scenarios the same as married couples. Basically as long as they live together, have children together, share living expenses etc
North American As of 7/2015	As long as there is documented insurable interest between the two individuals we can consider.
Protective Life As of 7/2015	No published guidelines; will consider as any other couple, must live together, own a home, children, etc.
Prudential As of 7/2015	Clients can designate their partner as the beneficiary; no additional information is required to establish insurable interest.

This information is for general comparative purposes only. If you have a specific case or question for a specific carrier, you are encouraged to contact the carrier or TMA's Support Desk for confirmation.

This information is believed to be accurate as of the date listed. Carriers can make changes without notifying TMA or other distribution.

Insurable Interest: Domestic & Same Sex Partners

CARRIER	GUIDELINES
SBLI As of 7/2015	Will consider if the partners live together and share expenses.
Symetra As of 7/2015	Not concerned with gender or relationship status as long as there is an insurable interest – assets, home, children, etc. to the beneficiary.
Transamerica As of 7/2015	Will consider as long as there is a clear and vested interest for the insured, for domestic & same sex couples. As long as there is a history between the two individuals and a reason for the coverage (financial loss to the beneficiary) then Transamerica will consider.
United of Omaha As of 7/2015	No specific guidelines. Explain circumstances in a cover letter regarding impact of financial loss to the partner.

This information is for general comparative purposes only. If you have a specific case or question for a specific carrier, you are encouraged to contact the carrier or TMA's Support Desk for confirmation.

This information is believed to be accurate as of the date listed. Carriers can make changes without notifying TMA or other distribution.